Geoffrey Davison, Con Foley & Adam Hogg

Malaysian Nature Society Auditorium
2pm • 4th May 2019

Dr Geoffrey Davison spent all his working life in Southeast Asia, as a university lecturer in Malaysia, a conservationist with WWF, and then with the National Parks Board in Singapore. His interests range across ornithology, tropical forest ecology and animal taxonomy. He has written numerous scientific papers, as well as a number of books about birds and wildlife in Southeast Asia, including bestsellers Photoguide to the Birds of Borneo and Photoguide to the Birds of Peninsular Malaysia.

Con Foley is a professional nature photographer who hunts photo-fans and web-jugglers in and around Singapore, Malaysia and further afield. He is the past president of the Nature Photographic Society (Singapore) and has had his photos published worldwide.

Adam Hakim Hogg is a 13-year-old wildlife and nature photographer following in the footsteps of his professional wildlife conservation father. Adam is a three-time Student Champion of the Fraser's Hill International Bird Race, two-time winner in the Junior category of the Natural History Museum Wildlife Photographer of the Year Competition, and his best six images used in many publications around the world.
